Sailor of the Year with a Disability
Youth Sailor of the Year
Sport Promotion Award
Lifetime Achievement Award
Sport Professional Award
Volunteer Award

Conditions Relating to the Awards

1. Full details MUST be provided for each nominated person/crew in order to facilitate the judging process. Nominations MUST include a quality “head and shoulders” colour photograph or an action shot, preferably emailed in a high resolution format. For all categories the completed nomination form must be signed by the nominee, verifying the accuracy of information provided.
2. On selection as a finalist Yachting Australia would appreciate being supplied with at least 30 seconds of moving footage to assist in compiling a video montage for use at the Awards dinner.
3. If nominations include both skipper and crew(s), only the results that all the crew members achieved as a combined crew will be considered. It is preferred that where results were achieved as a combined crew that all crew members are nominated.
4. Nominations need not be made for each Award category.
5. Nominees, finalists and winners of previous Australian Yachting Awards may be re-nominated.
6. Nominations may be submitted by any person, provided the nominee meets the criteria listed.
To protect the integrity of the Awards and to guard against omissions, Yachting Australia reserves the right to make, alter, reject and amend nominations.
7. All nominations should be in respect of performances and achievements during the period 1 August 2009 to 15 August 2010 except for the Lifetime Achievement Award, Sport Professional Award and the Volunteer Award, which all focus on longer term contribution to yachting.
8. For the Youth Sailor of the Year award – the rules in respect to youth status are as per the International Sailing Federation (ISAF) guidelines. Athletes must be under 19 years of age during the year in which the event(s) included in the nomination took place.
9. To be considered for the Sailor of the Year with a Disability award, a nominee must be classified under the International Association for Disabled Sailing’s (IFDS) Functional Classification System or for a sailor with an intellectual disability the INAS-FID Athlete Eligibility Criteria

10. Completion of nomination forms indicates full acceptance, by both the nominee and the nominator, of the conditions that apply to the conduct of the Australian Yachting Awards.
11. Selection of finalists and winners of each award category will be made by the Voting Academy. The Voting Academy is an independent panel appointed by Yachting Australia. The panel is constituted of prominent, successful and experienced people representing all aspects of the sailing and boating community.
12. For the Sailor of the Year awards individual or joint/dual winners may be awarded. For the Lifetime Achievement Award, Sport Professional Award and the Volunteer Award any number of awards may be given so as to recognise a significant contribution that deserves merit.
13. The Lifetime Achievement Award, Sport Professional Award and the Volunteer Award may not be awarded every year.
14. The decisions of the Voting Academy are final and no correspondence will be entered into.
